

Highlights from Agency Coordinators:

- "This was an incredible experience. I have nothing but praise and positive comments for the volunteers who came to help and the day as a whole. Thank you so much!"
- "I was impressed with the total willingness of the volunteers to complete the tasks that we needed done. I was pleasantly surprised at how well everything went and how much was accomplished."
- "Some of the employees went to Lowes and bought wood and potting soil to fix our school sign and fill the new flower box that was built. The sign was not part of the project but they wanted to fix it anyway. Kudos to them all."

Highlights from Company Coordinators:

- "We had such a great experience that several of the participants are going to return to volunteer on their own. That's what it's all about, right?!"
- "Our company is contemplating 'adopting' this school as their needs were far greater than what we could accomplish during the Day of Caring."
- "Each Day of Caring project is an unforgettable experience that touches us all who volunteer."
- "Every person that drove by or went into the school thanked us!"

Highlights from Volunteers:

- "I still had on my t-shirt when I went to Ingles after work. A lady stopped me and thanked me for giving my time that day. Her agency had other volunteers help them. It really made me feel like we had made a great impact for the entire community."
- "Helps you appreciate what others in the community are doing & where the United Way contributions go."
- "The custodian of the school and all of the kids there were so appreciative....the custodian even cried (and so did a lot of the volunteers)."
- "I really enjoyed going to the shelter. It made me think a lot about my life, and how I can get my kids involved to help others who are less fortunate."
- "We received so much positive feedback from the coordinators. It was a dirty and sweaty day but we felt really good about what we accomplished!"
- "This was a very rewarding experience as well as an eye opener to the problems we face in WNC."
- "I would volunteer for this again in a New York minute!"
- "This is a great way to give back to the community and to get to know the various services offered in our area."
- "Wonderful, humbling experience!"
- "I really enjoyed being with my fellow employees. Working together for the greater good. I loved the sense of team work."
- "What we did together in a few hours would have taken the staff by themselves weeks to complete."
- "Seeing how to make a difference to so many with such a small amount of effort."
